Dear Principal and Teachers

Prude Inc. (Pride of Race, Unity & Diversity through Education) is a multicultural organization that promotes diversity, equality, respect and inclusiveness through its public awareness and skills development training programs.

MORE THE SAME THAN DIFFERENT !

We are proud to offer our new classroom presentations and workshops that enables students to build on the work done in the past. This allows further examination into stereotypes, challenge their assumptions, and provides them with the tools that they need to develop a better understanding of the value of our diverse Canadian society, and the role they play within it. Despite our outside differences, people are more the same on the inside. We conduct a group activity with a PowerPoint presentation and handouts and by the end students understand that assumptions about people based on how they look are hurtful and/or misguided. They explore how we sometimes see things that do not exist. Students learn that they hold stereotypes based solely on outward appearances.

PRESENTATIONS
